mikoo-remei[®] BIODEGRADABLE BATH BRUSH is made from a mixture of wheat straw and plastic. As an agricultural by-product, wheat straw is often burned, which contributes to greenhouse gas and global warming.

Through the combination of wheat straw, a natural growing material, and plastics, agricultural and forestry waste such as straw can be fully utilized, which can greatly reduce the use of plastics and white pollution.

With the application of this new material technology, 45% of plastic will be replaced, which can play a role in protecting the environment.

Benefit:

- *This bath brush made from wheat straw is effective for cleaning and low elasticity massage
- *Suitable for wet and dry massage
- *Promote blood circulation and stimulate the circulatory system
